

Parkway North High PTO Scholarship

2011 - 2012

The Parkway North High PTO Scholarship was created in 2005 to recognize Parkway North High School seniors who demonstrate their commitment to Parkway North High School and the community. These awards are made possible through the generosity of those who contribute to the Parkway North High School PTO.

Each year, four deserving students will receive a financial stipend of $500 from the "Parkway North High PTO" Scholarship fund.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD CRITERIA

Consideration for a Parkway North High PTO Scholarship will be given to any senior applicant who has demonstrated his or her commitment to the Parkway North Community and plans to attend an institution of higher learning in fall 2012. Any senior, regardless of his or her grades or college entrance exam scores, may apply. Faculty members should encourage deserving students to submit applications.

The scholarship recipients are selected by a committee of PNH parents. The selection process is as follows:

- Committee reviews and scores all applications
- Finalists will participate in a 10-minute interview with the scholarship committee.

Awardees are notified at the Honors Program in May.
